ARTICLE 2 - NON-DISCRIMINATION

The Employer and the Union shall not discriminate because of race, religion, creed, color, national origin, handicap, age, Union activity, sex, or marital status, or other legal requirements.

ARTICLE 3 - HOURS OF WORK

Section 1. The starting and quitting time of employees may be changed by the Employer. The Employer will provide fourteen (14) calendar days notice prior to such changes unless there are personnel shortages, employees absent from work, an emergency situation, weather problems, consumer activities, or for any unforeseeable circumstances.

ARTICLE 4 - DEFINITION OF EMPLOYEES

Section 1. Regular Full-Time Employees. An employee hired to work and who works forty (40) hours or more of regularly scheduled, continuous work per week shall be considered a full-time employee. Full-time employees shall be entitled to all the benefits defined in this Agreement.

Section 2. Regular Part-Time Employees. An employee hired to work and who works less than forty (40) hours per week but at least twenty (20) hours per week of regularly scheduled, continuous work shall be considered a part-time employee. Part-time employees shall be entitled to Paid Time Off on a pro-rated basis on hours worked in relation to full-time employees' accruals and certain other fringe benefits as specifically authorized and provided in this Agreement for part-time employees. Notwithstanding any contrary provisions, part-time employees of less than twenty (20) hours per week are not eligible and shall not receive any fringe benefits, including, but not limited to, short-term disability, long-term disability, health insurance, and life insurance. Health insurance shall only be available to employees normally scheduled to work thirty (30) or more hours per week.

Section 3. Substitute Employees. An employee who is not hired to work at least twenty (20) hours per week on a regularly scheduled continuous basis shall be considered a substitute employee. Substitute employees shall not be covered by this Agreement and shall not be entitled to any benefits in this Agreement. The Union hereby waives its right to include part-time employees of twenty (20) hours or less per week in this bargaining unit during the effective period of this contract. In the event these employees should ever be included in this bargaining unit, all employees scheduled to work, and who work twenty (20) hours or less per week shall not receive health insurance coverage at the time employees working twenty (20) hours or less become members of the bargaining unit.

When a substitute is hired into a bargaining unit position without any break in service, the time since that person last received a step shall count towards the employee's movement to the next step.

Section 4. Part-Time Working Full-Time. An employee who is classified as a part-time employee and who works forty (40) hours or more per week for one hundred eighty (180) consecutive work days shall receive the benefits of a full-time employee starting the one hundred eighty-first (181st) work day. If a probationary employee is on unpaid leave(s) for ten (10) days or more, his/her probationary period shall be extended by an amount of time equal to the unpaid leave(s). During the probationary period, the employee may be terminated without recourse to or without regard to this Agreement, and shall not be entitled to the benefits of the grievance procedure as it relates to discipline and/or discharge. The probationary employee can be terminated for any reason or for no reason. Unpaid leave includes inactive pay status such as disability leave or worker's compensation leave.

ARTICLE 6 - UNION SECURITY

Section 1. Union Membership. Membership in the Union is not compulsory and is a matter separate, distinct, and apart from an employee's obligation to share in the costs of administering and negotiating this Agreement. All employees have the right to join, not join, maintain, or drop their membership in the Union as they see fit. The Union recognizes, however, that it is required under this Agreement to represent all employees included in the collective bargaining unit without regard to whether or not the employee is a member of the Union.

Section 2. Payroll Deduction. The Employer agrees to deduct from the wages of its employees covered by this Agreement service fees uniformly required by the Union, provided the Union first furnishes to the Employer an authorization for check-off of such service fees signed by the employee involved. Upon deduction, the Employer shall remit such deductions to the Treasurer of OPEIU, Local 459, on or before the second pay period of each month. Deductions shall commence the first (1st) full month following receipt by the Payroll Clerk of voluntarily signed check-off authorization provided the employee shall have earned sufficient pay to cover the deduction. Such written voluntarily authorization shall apply unless the employee gives written notice of his termination of said authorization to the Payroll Clerk. The Union shall certify the amount of the service fees to the Payroll Clerk.

Section 3. Hold Harmless and Indemnification. The Union agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any and all claims, suits, or other forms of liability arising out of the deduction of dues or service fees provided herein or by reason of action taken by the Employer.

Section 4. Michigan Public Act 349. The Union and Employer agree that if, during the term of this Agreement, Michigan Public Act 349 shall be repealed, or otherwise nullified through legislation or an order of law rendered by a court or other tribunal of competent jurisdiction and if all appeals have been exhausted, the provisions of the foregoing article in this Agreement shall be replaced immediately on the effective date of such legislation or final order with the language in Article 6 – Union Security from the October 1, 2009 through September 30, 2013 collective bargaining agreement.

ARTICLE 7 - SENIORITY

- E. He/she is on unpaid leave for any reason, other than a workers' compensation leave, for twelve (12) months or longer provided the Employer notifies the employee one (1) month in advance that failure to return will result in loss of status as an employee and seniority.

Section 5. An employee who is employed as a substitute employee immediately prior to becoming a bargaining unit employee shall, after being in the bargaining unit for one (1) year, be granted seniority for his/her hours worked as a substitute employee.

Section 6. An employee in the bargaining unit who is promoted outside the bargaining unit, and is thereafter transferred or demoted back to the bargaining unit, shall not accumulate seniority while working outside the bargaining unit. They shall act in a manner which will not disrupt nor interfere with any functions of the Employer. The Steward, during his/her working hours, without loss of pay or time not to exceed one (1) hour per week, not to accumulate, may investigate and present grievances to the Employer. Additional time may be granted by the Employer. Any investigation shall be performed with a minimum of interference with work assignments and loss of working time. However, in no event shall the Steward leave his/her work for such purpose without first obtaining permission from his/her Supervisor. The Supervisor may require the Steward to investigate and/or present grievances during other than working hours in the event that the Supervisor believes that the work force cannot be adequately covered during the time that the Steward desires to investigate and/or present grievances.

Section 4. The Union will furnish the Employer, in writing, the names of its Chief Steward, Stewards and Alternates and whatever changes may occur from time-to-time in such personnel so that the Employer may at all times be advised as to the authority of individual representatives of the Union with whom it may be dealing. The employee may be represented by his/her Steward or the Union Service Representative or Union Attorney during the hearing and may present witnesses and evidence and may cross-examine any witnesses called by the Employer's representatives.

Section 3. The failure of either party to follow the time limits outlined herein shall result in the following:

- A. If the Employer does not respond to the grievance within the time limitations set forth, the grievance shall be advanced to the next step.
- B. In the event the Union or employee does not follow the time limits required herein, the grievance shall be considered irrevocably settled based on the Employer's last answer, but shall not set a precedence for future grievances.

The Employer shall notify the Union when it intends to reduce the work force. The notice to the Union shall be by mail and shall be mailed at least seven (7) calendar days prior to the layoff.
2. Probationary employees in the classification at the work site scheduled for layoff shall be laid off first.
3. Voluntary layoffs may be accepted within the classification and worksite affected. Should there be more volunteers than needed, requests of employees will be granted based on seniority, provided there is no adverse impact as determined by the Employer, which decision shall not be grievable. An employee who elects a voluntary layoff shall have no bumping rights, and is subject to recall provisions of this policy.
4. Non-probationary employees in the classification at that work site affected shall be laid off in reverse order of seniority provided that the senior employees retained have the immediate necessary qualifications, skill and ability to perform the remaining work, as determined by the Employer. For purposes of this section, seniority shall be defined as continuous seniority within the affected classification. If two (2) or more employees have the same seniority within the affected classification, overall seniority shall be used as the tie-breaker.

Section 2. Employees shall be given a minimum of seven (7) calendar days' notice, or wages in lieu of notice, prior to layoff.

Section 3. An employee scheduled for layoff may choose to bump another employee by using the following method:

An employee may bump a part-time employee if there are no full-time positions to bump to under the qualifications noted above.

Section 4. If an employee is scheduled to be laid off and there are no employees who may be bumped using the provisions of Section 3, the lowest seniority employee in the same classification working in the other county may be bumped, providing the employee doing the bumping has more seniority than the employee being bumped and the immediate necessary qualifications, skill and ability to perform the remaining work, as determined by the Employer. A full-time employee may bump a part-time employee if there are no full-time positions to bump to under the qualifications noted above.

Part-time employees may not bump full-time employees.

Section 5. An employee must notify the Employer in writing if he/she intends to exercise his/her bumping rights before the end of the next working day after receipt of a layoff notice or notice of being bumped by a more senior employee. Failure to do so shall result in forfeiture of bumping rights.

Section 6. When the work force is increased, an employee will be recalled in order of seniority and the skill and ability to immediately perform the work. The Employer shall mail notice to the laid off employee at their last known address or provide notice by delivering same to the employee's last known address. The employee may provide the Employer with an alternative address, in which case, the Employer shall send a copy of that notice to that address. It is the responsibility of the employee to advise the Employer of his/her last known address. Employees must respond to notice of recall within five (5) calendar days. Failure to do so will result in forfeiture of recall rights. When an employee is on layoff he/she shall only be entitled to decline to be called back to a position category, i.e. full-time, regular part-time and temporary one (1) time. Any employee that refuses such call back from layoff shall forfeit any right to recall for that category.

Section 7. Notwithstanding any contrary provisions, unless otherwise approved by the Employer, not more than two (2) employees may bump into the same work site.

Section 8. Nothing contained in this contract shall preclude the Employer from using substitute employees, even in the event of layoff, except the limitations provided in Article 24, Section 6.

Section 9. The Employer may require employees to work a different shift schedule in order to provide necessary coverage following a layoff. Shift coverage shall be offered by seniority under such circumstances.

Section 10. Employees who are recalled to a temporary position in the same classification they had prior to layoff shall be paid at the rate they were at prior to layoff, but without any fringe benefits and they shall not be covered by the terms of this contract.

ARTICLE 15 - DISCHARGE AND DISCIPLINE

Section 1. The Employer agrees, upon the discharge or suspension or written reprimand of a non-probationary employee, to notify in writing the employee and his/her Steward of the discharge or suspension or written reprimand. The written notice shall contain the reasons for the discharge or suspension or written reprimand. Should the discharged or suspended or reprimanded employee consider the discharge or suspension or reprimand to be improper, it shall be submitted to the grievance procedure.

Section 2. For all non-probationary employees, discipline shall be for just cause.

Section 3. A written or verbal reprimand shall not be used by the Employer in subsequent disciplinary matters if it is more than two (2) years since that action was taken.

The above two (2) year limitation does not apply to disciplinary action which is more severe (suspension or stronger disciplinary action).

Section 4. All written reprimands shall be expunged from the employee's personnel file after two (2) years from date of discipline if no other discipline was imposed during that two (2) year period.

Section 2. Content. An employee evaluation will assess the degree to which the employee is performing their tasks and the degree to which he or she possesses the skills, knowledge and attitudes of their position.

Section 3. Results. Evaluations shall be made in writing by the immediate supervisor, with one (1) copy given to the employee and one (1) copy placed in his/her personnel file and one (1) copy retained by the supervisor. The supervisor will discuss the evaluation with the employee. Within ten (10) working days after receipt of the evaluation, an employee may write a response to his/her evaluation which will also be placed in the personnel file.

Section 4. Evaluations shall not be considered discipline. However, disciplinary action may occur as a result of not correcting problems noted in the evaluation. Either party may refer to the evaluation in disciplinary proceedings to support its position.
